Aboriginal Journeys is a locally owned and operated First Nations wildlife viewing and adventure tour company located in Campbell River, British Columbia. We are situated within the traditional territory of the Laichwiltach peoples. Enjoy whale watching, grizzly bear watching from viewing platforms, soaring eagles, playful dolphins and other marine wildlife in their natural habitat. Learn some of our local First Nations history and culture and join us for a journey into our spiritual world. Custom tours can be created for groups of 12 or more to include a traditional salmon barbeque at the We-Wai-Kai Village on Quadra Island. Tours are guided by locally born residents with a minimum 30 years of experience navigating through our waters. You will enjoy an intimate and exhilarating journey aboard our 24-foot zodiac, or our 27-foot covered vessel with an onboard washroom. With Aboriginal Journeys the genuine care, comfort and safety of our guests is and will always be our highest mission.
